KOREANS WANT COMPLETE NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 23.-The 7,000 Koreans of Hawaii bave united in sending a representative to the peace conference between the peace commissioners of Japan and Russia. They have selected Rev. P. K. Yoon, a minister of the Korean Methodist church, who has been in Hawaii about two years. Of course, Mr. Yoon will have no official status.

Mr. Yoon's object is to get before the peace conference the feelings of the 7,000 Koreans now residing in Ha-wall regarding the relations of their country with Japan. While recogniz-ing that Japan is their best friend and that their country is indebted to Japan for very much that it now enjoys of stability of government and of pros-perity, they still have a yearning for complete national independence, and want to secure some assurance that Japan intends at some time in the near future to restore complete independ-
